

State, as briefly as you reasonably can, what you regard as the most important problem facing humanity.

Write a paragraph defending your selection of this particular problem.

Write another paragraph discussing how you think this problem might be solved.

Writing example: General Purpose Biology Report

What we did was,

I mean, you see,

What it is, is

Well, basically,

Is the same thing

In point of fact

As, you know,

And stuff like that.

Etc., etc., etc.

Okay?
